1. VEB Industrieberichterstattung is a report, prepared monthly, on which are based the progress reports on the activities of the installations concerned. It has six sections:

- A gives general information on the installation
- B reports on the labor force
- C reports the value of production in thousands of eastmarks-no percentages are given
- D the monthly electric power consumption
- E planned and actual production according to the Planpositionen, but only in thousands of eastmarks
- F is the progress report on fulfilment of the plan

IM

VEB is simply a code for this particular type of form.
